

NEH

NEWMARKET EQUINE HOSPITAL

Knowing your horse inside out A practical guide to lameness

Newmarket Equine Hospital
Wednesday 12th February
6.30 for 7pm start

Join us for a fun and informative evening at the hospital explaining how to identify lameness and what we may do to investigate this, with small group practical demonstrations and limb dissections.

Programme

Is my horse lame and what is causing it?

Mark Tunstill MRCVS

Small Group Practical Demonstration

Looking through the layers; Limb Dissection

Flora Collingwood MRCVS

Know the DANGER ZONES; Joints and Tendon Sheaths

Rachael Errington MRCVS

Under the skin; Tendons and Ligaments

Fran James MRCVS (Specialist in Equine Surgery, Sports Medicine and Rehabilitation)

Join us for refreshments from 6.30pm at the hospital.
Please call 01638 782000 or email: polly.baker@neh.uk.com
to book as places are limited.

WARNING: This evening will include watching dissections of post-mortem specimens.